Creativity Retreat with Rassouli

Saturday, Oct. 26th, 9:00am thru 5:00pm

This is a full-day workshop which will give you an opportunity to explore your creative ideas. You are encouraged to take risks: to explore the unpredictable rather than predictable, and engage in painting-self-expression rather than picture making. Participation in group discussions about creativity augments Rassouli's individual guidance and encouragement. This is the place to let your soul express itself with no limits, no preconceived ideas. It's a place to be truly who you are.
